

WALT: To write a persuasive piece of writing

WILF: English- To use hyperbole, rhetorical questions, imagery and alliteration to persuade your customers at a travel agency to visit Greece on holiday

Geography- To use geographical vocabulary and research in your persuasive piece, such as terrain, mountainous land and peninsula

You will have to complete the Geography work first to then complete this English work!

Using your Greek travel brochure that you have created can you write a persuasive speech that you can present to your customers (your family) at your travel agency to convince them to visit Greece on holiday? REMEMBER you need facts and figures from your research to convince them!!

LAYOUT:

Paragraph one- who are you? Why should the customers pick Greece for their holiday? What are the five top reasons?

Paragraph two- Any other exciting or interesting facts about Greece that everyone would be mad to miss out on!

Paragraph three- Summary of your argument for why they should come to Greece

Your speech should be short, snappy and exciting! Try to use rhetorical questions and hyperbole to convince the audience that they should book your holiday!

Don't forget to include the prices and deal you can give them!

Good luck!
