

Spelling Word Match-Up!

This week, we are learning adjectives ending in 'ent' and how they become nouns that end in 'ence' or 'ency'. Can you match the correct noun or adjective to the correct sentence?

innocent	innocence	decent	decency	excellent
excellence	confident	confidence	existent	existence

1. The jury found the international jewel thief _____ so he left the court laughing deviously.
2. Thanks to his _____ training regime, the athlete crossed the line to win a gold medal at the Olympic Games and he celebrated wildly.
3. As he was low on _____, the out-of-form footballer clumsily missed yet another penalty.
4. Gina had been falsely accused of breaking her mum's best vase so she needed to prove her _____.
5. Locked inside the museum display case and watched dutifully by security guards, the oldest dinosaur bone in _____ was on display.
6. The hard-working student proudly accepted his award for _____ in engineering studies.
7. After endlessly visiting every café in the foreign town, Miss Prim still hadn't found a _____ cup of tea!
8. Feeling _____, the dance troupe walked assuredly into the talent show auditions.
9. The headteacher was impressed that the girl had had the _____ to come and confess to accidentally breaking the school's greenhouse window.
10. After losing comprehensively in every game so far this season, the chances of the netball team winning the league were non- _____.

Challenge Task

Can you highlight the ambitious adverbs that have been used in every sentence?

Spelling Word Match-Up! Answers

This week, we are learning adjectives ending in 'ent' and how they become nouns that end in 'ence' or 'ency'. Can you match the correct noun or adjective to the correct sentence?

innocent	innocence	decent	decency	excellent
excellence	confident	confidence	existent	existence

1. The jury found the international jewel thief innocent so he left the court laughing deviously.
2. Thanks to his excellent training regime, the athlete crossed the line to win a gold medal at the Olympic Games and he celebrated wildly.
3. As he was low on confidence, the out-of-form footballer clumsily missed yet another penalty.
4. Gina had been falsely accused of breaking her mum's best vase so she needed to prove her innocence.
5. Locked inside the museum display case and watched dutifully by security guards, the oldest dinosaur bone in existence was on display.
6. The hard-working student proudly accepted his award for excellence in engineering studies.
7. After endlessly visiting every café in the foreign town, Miss Prim still hadn't found a decent cup of tea!
8. Feeling confident, the dance troupe walked assuredly into the talent show auditions.
9. The headteacher was impressed that the girl had had the decepcy to come and confess to accidentally breaking the school's greenhouse window.
10. After losing comprehensively in every game so far this season, the chances of the netball team winning the league were non- existent.

Challenge Task

Can you highlight the ambitious adverbs that have been used in every sentence?