

Using some of the fronted adverbials in the table below, write a description of these pictures. The first sentence has been done for you. Remember to always place a comma after the fronted adverbial to separate it from the main clause.

Time	Place	Manner
In the morning	In the persons hand	With a determined look
During the hunt	On the floor	As quick as a flash
Before lunch	Under the hut	Without warning
In the afternoon	On the forest floor	Like tall giants
After he picked up his spear	In the background	Nervously

With a determined look, the tribal men prepared to go hunting in the wilderness to catch food for the evening meal.

Here are some more pictures for you to describe using fronted adverbials

