

Look at the pictures of the three bears' cottage. Write a list of the things that Goldilocks might see in the cottage.

Remember to write the words underneath each other as a list. Say each word aloud before writing and think about the sounds in the word.

