

Good morning! – It's 14th January

Leo's word of the day:

contagious

Having a sickness that can be passed to someone else.

The patient was highly contagious and so the doctor wore a mask and gloves whilst examining him.

(Could you alter the suffix?)

Landmark of the day

Kola Borehole

Location – Kola, Russia

Depth: 12,262 metres

? Which country did this landmark reside in, in 1965?

Today's challenges

A box holds 21 cakes. If James eats two thirds of them, and then Sal eats too fourteenths of the remaining cakes, how many will be left in the box?

 Use the word of the day in a sentence.

 Do something kind for someone!

 Can you spot any mistakes?

Today in history:
