

Here are the last pictures of our caterpillars that are no longer caterpillars but butterflies. They all came out of their cocoons successfully.

Days 22 and 23

The last butterfly comes out from its cocoon.

The butterflies are feeding on the sugar solution and the fruit.

They are ready to leave the net. Watch the film clip to see them fly away.

