

Letter to your new teacher

Your task this week is to write a letter to your new year 2 teacher. Before you start writing you will need to think about the things you want your teacher to know. Make a mind map of all the things you want to tell them in your exercise book.

Example:

Next, you will need to think about what a letter looks like and how you will need to lay it out on the page. Have a look at Miss Johnston's video to help you get started. You can even draw a picture of yourself so they know what you look like!

Remember, this is the first piece of writing you will do for your new teacher so remember all of the skill you have learned this year to really impress them with your 5 tick sentences and beautiful handwriting!

You can use the template below or write straight into your exercise book.

Dear _____,

From _____

This is me:
