WHAT JOBS DID THEY DO ?

The jobs they did were making tools and cutting red meat making clothes or sewing clothes and picking nuts and berry's and grill red meat.

Also would have to make spears and spearheads and clean animal hides .

Where they live ?

In the Palaeolithic they lived in caves and they had to move every night and there would be a fire in front of the cave that someone lived in.

In the Mesolithic they would have tents .

In the Neolithic they would live in dirty farms and if you had one you would have one house to live in and one house to cook in.

What they eat?

In the Stone Age hunter gatherers would hunt mammoths, saner tooth cats.

In the Neolithic they would have farms and in the farms they would have goats , sheep, cows and cattle. Also they would not have to move around envy more.

Do you know?

The Palaeolithic is first in the Stone Age next the Mesolithic next the Neolithic.
