What did they eat?

In the paleolithic era people were hunter gatherers. Stone age people eat woolly mammoth, woolly rino, berries, nuts, herbs, fish, leaves and saber tooth cat. The ocean and the forests are the two important places because that's how they get their food.

In the Neolithic era they build farms so they didn't have to move place to place. There were four, they didn't get tired.

This is pictures of animals and caves paintings!!!!👍👍👍👍ok👉.
