

Big write

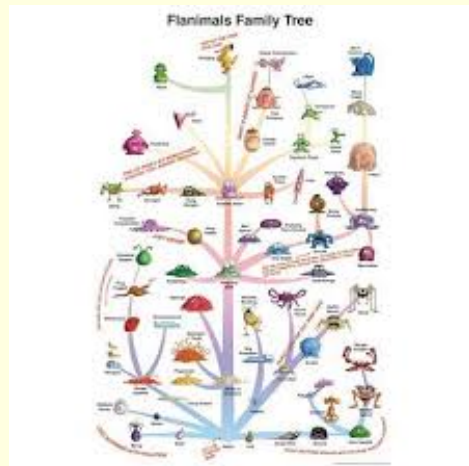

Flanimal encyclopedia
(Information text)

Exciting News!

A New planet has been found in a distant galaxy called Planet Flearth!

On this planet we have discovered a diverse range of new creatures which we have named Flanimals.

So We need you help!

We have searched miles around and have been told that the children at Heymann Primary school are experts at writing information texts. So we have chosen YOU to create the first Flanimal encyclopedia. Do you accept the mission?

From Special Agent X

First

We need to brief you so we have sent two valuable members of our team.....

Agent WALT and Agent WILF

Read what they have to say!

Do you understand what is expected and what some words mean?

WALT: To know how to write an information text
Bronze- choose appropriate sub-heading from word mat
Silver- simple sentences
Gold- use of conjunction
Challenge- fronted adverbial

WALT: To know how to write an information text
Bronze- informative sentences
Silver- questions as sub-headings
Gold- subordinating conjunctions
Challenge- other features of information text

WALT: To know how to write an information text

Bronze- choose appropriate sub-heading from word mat

Silver- simple sentences

Gold- use of conjunction

Challenge- fronted adverbial

WALT: To know how to write an information text

Bronze- informative sentences

Silver- questions as sub-headings

Gold- subordinating conjunctions

Challenge- other features of information text

What are the features of an information text?

Now

It is time for you to meet the Flanimals and think about how different they all are from each other.

Have a couple of minutes to think about what your creature is like...can you use adjectives?

Important!

Every new creature needs a name!

Use the words you have used to describe your creature to come up with a name and also use your phonic knowledge to spell it!

You guys are the experts so whatever you say is true.
People want to find out lots of information out about these flanimals.

What types of things do you think they might want to know?

YOU are the expert!

So you come up with the facts!

Your turn to make your flanimal come alive! It can be/do whatever you want!

WALT: To know how to write an information text

Bronze- choose appropriate sub-heading from word mat

Silver- simple sentences

Gold- use of conjunction

Challenge- fronted adverbial

WALT: To know how to write an information text

Bronze- informative sentences

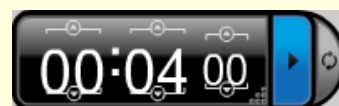

Silver- questions as sub-headings

Gold- subordinating conjunctions

Challenge- other features of information text

Now you need to think about your flanimal.

Make sure they are factual and not opinion and try to put your notes into full sentences when talking to others.

WALT: To know how to write an information text

Bronze- choose appropriate sub-heading from word mat

Silver- simple sentences

Gold- use of conjunction

Challenge- fronted adverbial

WALT: To know how to write an information text

Bronze- informative sentences

Silver- questions as sub-headings

Gold- subordinating conjunctions

Challenge- other features of information text