

Lesson 2 - Instructions

The background of the slide is composed of several overlapping, semi-transparent green triangles and polygons of various shades, creating a dynamic, abstract geometric pattern. The colors range from a light lime green to a darker forest green. The shapes are arranged in a way that suggests movement and depth, with some shapes appearing to recede into the background while others come forward.

What features of a set of instructions can you remember from yesterday?

Do you think this is a good instruction or not? Why?

Begin by calmly and steadily pressing the sky blue button, until the beautiful, yellow and lemon coloured dish flickers in a shimmering glitter of colour, like a star in the sky.

- ▶ Remember, instructions should be clear and simple so that they are easy to follow.
- ▶ It is important to make sure you include every single instruction. Why might this be?

Watch the following video to help you to answer the question:

Today, you are going to write a set of instructions for how to make a paper aeroplane

- ▶ First, you need to watch the video and think of some imperative verbs that you might need to use.
- ▶ <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=v29M7Oa1l-A>

An imperative verb is a verb that tells you to do something so that it is an order or command

- ▶ Which of these imperative verbs might be appropriate for a set of instructions about a paper aeroplane?

fold

stick

bake

run

crease

Can you think of any other imperative verbs? Make a list in your book

Fronted Adverbials

- ▶ Here is a list of Fronted Adverbials of time that you might want to use at the beginning of each instruction:
- ▶ First,
- ▶ Next,
- ▶ Then,
- ▶ After that,
- ▶ Finally,
- ▶ Secondly,

Don't forget to put the comma after the fronted adverbial!
