

Examples of this grammar from last week:

Fronted adverbials	Powerful adjectives		Adverbials of how	Subordinating clause (conjunctions in bold)
Beside the grey, cracked pavement, Underneath the vibrant, colourful sky, Amongst the bustling, mundane crowds, On top of his uncontrollable, steel tentacles, Beneath it's peculiar-shaped eyes, Emerging from his rusty, rounded head, Below the immense, concrete buildings, Through the beige, dusty sand,	Bizarre Enormous Elegant Feeble Ghastly Slippery Damaged Muscular Menacing Revolting Pleasant Unkempt Dismal Radiant peaceful	Affectionate Bold Crooked Immense Microscopic Lively Unappealing Scrawny Gleaming Drab prickly	Quickly Slowly Carefully Tirelessly Enthusiastically Gracefully Happily Effortlessly Rarely	Once I'd tumbled down the steps, As I picked the peculiar shell up, When the beautiful sun was setting, While I happily played with the thing, If it didn't belong to anyone, because nobody came to collect it