

Vocabulary check:
Across the Roman Wall

Scowl	Dismounted
Flank	Aqueducts
Reproached	Obtain
Disband	Corrupt
Provoked	Ravenous

scowl (verb)

Definition:

To make an angry frown

In context: The man scowled at the noisy children.

Synonyms: grimace

dismounted (verb)

Definition:

To get down from a horse or vehicle

In context: The jockey dismounted the horse after the race.

Flank (verb)

- Definition: to be at the side of something.

In Context: The two boys flanked their grandmother at the table.

Synonyms: border

Aqueducts (noun)

Definition: a structure like a bridge for carrying a waterway or pipe across a river or valley.

In context: The ancient Romans built enormous stone aqueducts.

reproached (verb)

Definition: to express disapproval or disappointment in someone's actions

In context: He reproached the soldiers for not following instructions

obtain (verb)

Definition: to get

In context: The child obtained some sweets from the shop.

Synonym: earn, gain, have

Disband (verb)

Definition: to break apart

In context: The pop group disbanded because they were having arguments

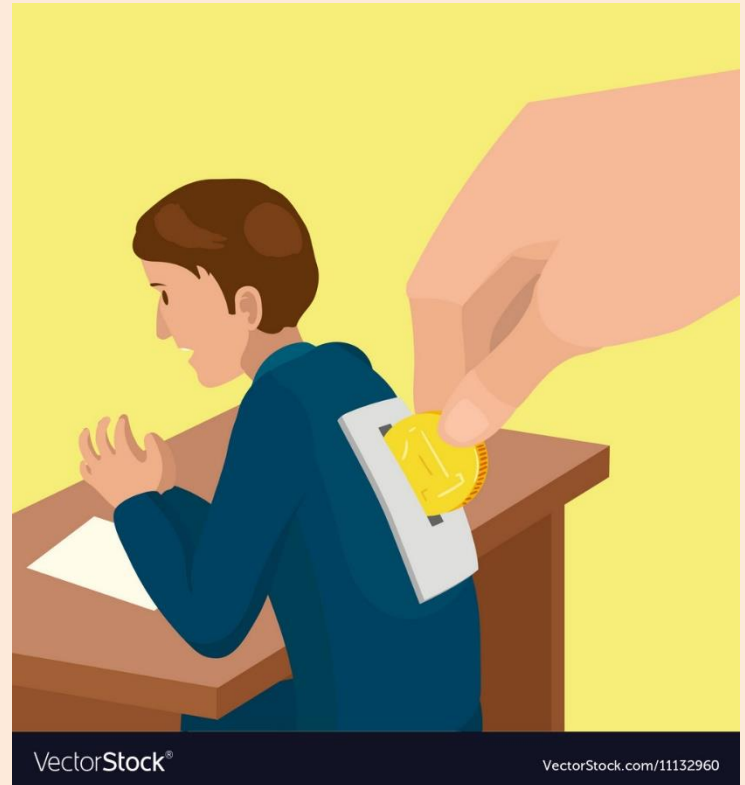

Synonyms: disintegrate, disperse, scatter

Corrupt (adjective)

Definition: Someone in power who becomes dishonest. Someone who is able to be bribed.

In context: The police officer was corrupt.

provoked (verb)

Definition: To make someone angry, annoyed or emotional on purpose.

In context: The child was provoked because the person next to her kept poking her in the back.

Synonyms: anger, enrage

ravenous (adjective)

Definition: extremely hungry

In context: The boy hadn't eaten all day and was ravenous.

Synonyms: starving

