

Rhino Enclosures! – Non-Fiction Pictures

Today you will be drawing a picture of a Rhino Enclosure and labelling it!

Animal Enclosures

What are they?

When animals are endangered humans make homes for them so that they can look after them. These are called 'enclosures'. If you have been to the zoo, you have been to an enclosure!

What Do Rhino Enclosures have?

Rhino enclosures need a place for rhinos to sleep in, somewhere to wash, a place to play and somewhere to eat and drink

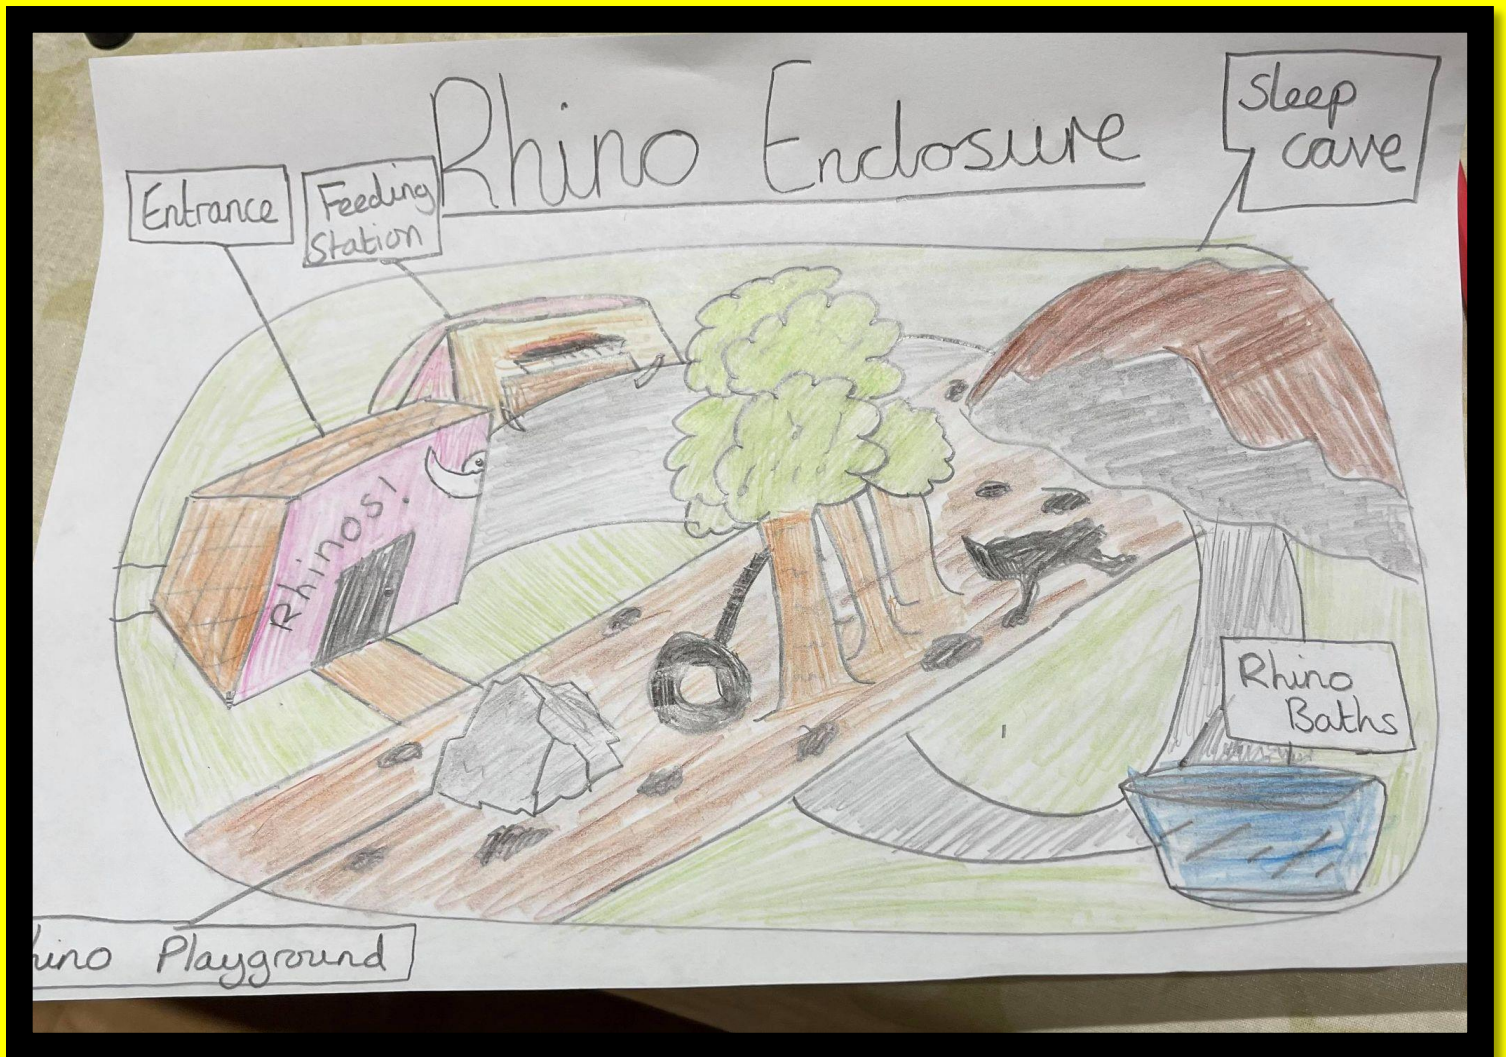

Non-Fiction

A non-fiction book is a book about facts and real life. Books about Rhinos would have a page in it about enclosures.

Labels

A non-fiction book has labels. Labels are pieces of information that go with a picture to tell us what is in the picture. It is usually in a box and has a line pointing to picture it is telling us about. Your picture will need labels!

Your picture should look something like this:
