

Create a story map like this to help you remember the story. Your story map can have pictures and a few key words to help you remember, not long sentences.

Watch the video all the way through first and then re watch and pause the video when you are making your story map. After you have finished, see if you can retell the story without the video to help you.