

STORY WRITING

Week 22nd February – 3 days of English

Remember the picture.

- The name the author gives it is 'Green'.
- Do you agree with this title?
- What title would you now give it?

Think of a title for your story.

Name:

Story Planning Mountain

My Main Characters

My Setting

Climax:

Build up:

Opening:

Ending:

LET'S START TO THINK OF WHAT YOU CAN PUT IN YOUR STORY
MOUNTAIN TO HELP
YOU WRITE A STORY.

Name:

Story Planning Mountain

My Main Characters

My Setting

Climax:

Build up:

Opening:

Ending:

WHAT GOES
IN EACH
SECTION OF A STORY MOUNTAIN?

How can we start a story?
No 'Once upon a time'

Everything was happening so slowly...

There he was. Sitting in the tree above my head looking so sad...

Things weren't making sense to me but I knew...

How can we start a story?
No 'Once upon a time'

I couldn't believe what I was seeing...

Nothing here was familiar...

I felt so alone and frightened...

Task for today

Use your story mountain to plan your story

Remember not to write in full sentences.
It is just your ideas and key words or phrases to include in your main story.

NOW IT'S TIME TO WRITE YOUR STORY

Remember to use your plan.

What's in your story mountain?

- Have you completed all the sections?

Name:

Story Planning Mountain

My Main Characters

Climax:

My Setting

Build up:

Ending:

Opening:

WHAT HAVE YOU WRITTEN
IN EACH SECTION OF
YOUR STORY MOUNTAIN?

Task for today

- Use your story mountain to write your story
- Vocabulary sheets to help you up-level your work.