

WALT: About the order of important events from the Tudor Era.
WILF: Events in the correct order; an arrow pointing to the correct point on the timeline; pictures matched or drawn for correct events.

Name: _____

Date: _____

My Tudor Timeline

| | | | | | |
|---|--|--|---|---|--|
| 1509 Henry VIII became king when his father Henry VII died. He married Catherine of Aragon, his brother's widow.  | 1547 Henry VIII died and Edward VI became king at the age of 9.  | 1609 Elizabeth I died. She had no children so James VI of Scotland became King James I of England.  | 1554 Mary I, a Catholic, married King Philip of Spain. During her reign she had many Protestants put to death and earned the nickname 'Bloody Mary'. | 1485 Henry VII became the first Tudor king when he defeated Richard III at the Battle of Bosworth.  | 1558 Mary I died and her sister became Queen Elizabeth I.  |
| 1591 William Shakespeare's first play was performed on stage. | 1545 Henry's favourite warship, the Mary Rose, sank in Portsmouth harbour. | 1588 Elizabeth I's fleet of ships, together with a bit of help from some stormy weather, defeated the Spanish Armada. | 1577 Sir Francis Drake set off around the world on a three year voyage. | 1534 In order to get divorced from his first wife, Henry VIII was made the supreme head of the Protestant Church of England. Before this time, England was a Catholic country with the Pope as head of the Church. | 1553 Edward VI died at the age of 16. His sister became Queen Mary I.  |
| 1580 The construction of Wollaton Hall begins. | 1596 Francis Willoughby dies | 1588 Wollaton Hall is completed.  | 1536 Henry VIII begins the dissolution of the monasteries. | 1535 The Bible is printed in English for the first time. | |