

Nursing during the Crimean War (1853 – 1856)

- Patients did not have enough space.
- The hospitals were dirty and there were not enough beds for the patients.
- Rats on the floors.

Nursing today (2021)

- Patients have enough space and are well cared for.
- The hospitals are cleaner now and patients can sleep in beds.
- Training has improved, nurses and doctors need more qualifications.
